TO GIVE WELCOME TO GOVERNOR CRAIG

Governor Locke Craig, who will speak in Hickory Thursday night, will be the guest of Mr. J. D. Elliott, president of the Chamber of Commerce. While the presence of the governor is of a political nature, the welcome to be accorded him will be cordial and nonpartisan. The Boy Scouts with their drum corps will meet him at the station and act as escort.

It is hoped that the governor will arrive in time to attend the fair and make a short address in the grounds. Governor Craig has not been in the best of health this fall and has made very few speeches, but the newspapers have spoken well of those he has delivered.

In a letter to Mr. W. A. Self today, Mr. Craig says he will certainly come to Hickory unless something unexpected happens.

BURGOMASTER PUTS BAN ON PEELING OF POTATOES

London, Oct. 24.—A dispatch to Reuters' Telegram Company from Copenhagen says:

"The Burgomaster of Eckernforde, Schleswig-Holstein, publishes an urgent order against the peeling of potatoes. The order says the prospects are exceedingly small and that despite official control it is probable that only a couple of pounds weekly per head will be obtained. Any one discovered peeling potatoes before boiling or throwing away the peels will be punished by three months' imprisonment, or a fine of 1,500 marks."

DURHAM TO BUILD 100 NEW COTTAGES

(By Associated Press.)
Durham, N. C., Oct. 24.—Despite the fact that wage earners have attempted to relieve the scarcity of houses here by constructing eighty-three homes during the last nine months, the Durham Chamber of Commerce has outlined definite plans for the erection of 100 new cottages for wage earning families. Construction of the cottages will begin immediately.

"Lack of homes," declared W. G. Bramham, president of the Chamber of Commerce, "is retarding Durham's progress. There is a shortage of labor in Durham and this shortage can only be overcome by providing homes for working people. The need for all labor, skilled and unskilled, in Durham, is so great that no limit need be mentioned."

Prosperity here is shown by the fact that in 1915 wage earners constructed only 52 houses at a cost of $83,010 while in 1916 official figures of J. T. Still, building inspector, show that in nine months 83 houses have been built at a cost of $178,514.

JOINT SERVICES AT CONOVER SUNDAY

On Sunday, Oct. 29, the Lutheran congregation of Catawba county connected with the synodical conference will unite in joint Reformation services in Conover. There will be two services, the one in the morning about 10:30, and the other in the afternoon at 2.

Besides Prof. H. B. Hemmeter, who is expected to preach in the morning, the Rev. Prof. W. H. T. Dau of the Concordia Theological Seminary of St. Louis, Mo., has been secured as a speaker. Prof. Dau was the first Missouri pastor called to the work of the Lutheran church at Conover and vicinity, serving both as president of Concordia College, and as pastor of a number of Lutheran congregations.

Prof. Dau is one of the leading Lutheran theologians of today, and is known as one of the church's most forceful and convincing speakers and writers. He is very favorably remembered by many in Catawba county, as well as in the entire southern field. In the beginning of the next year, in which the entire Lutheran church intends to celebrate its quadricentennial, it will be twenty-five years since Prof. Dau entered upon the work of the Lutheran church in this territory, and his return to this field just at this time will be of particular interest to the friends of conservative Lutheranism.

He will receive a cordial reception at the celebration herewith announced. A rousing gathering will be a propitious beginning of the Jubilee Year that commemorates the four-hundredth anniversary of the beginning of the Reformation. The services will be enhanced by the inspiring Lutheran chorals sung by the entire congregation, special numbers by the choir of Concordia congregation, and by the student quartette of Concordia College. The public is cordially invited to participate in the celebration. The services, if the weather permits, will be held in the open on the college grounds, otherwise in Concordia church.

THE STAMP of CHARACTER in clothes for men and young men

Critical customers agree that the refinement with which "High Art Clothes" express the modern fashion trend is one of the outstanding characteristics of these splendid garments.

Style in some clothes fairly screams itself into recognition—but in
